Prepositional Weather

Directions: Read the following short story on rain. Complete the blank by writing in the preposition.

It is raining. Mary is looking out the window. Mary wants to go _____(inside, outside). What Should Mary put _____(in, on)? Mary put a hat _____(in, on) her head. Will Mary get wet? Will a hat keep Mary dry? What will Mary do now? It is still raining. Mary goes back _____(outside, inside) the house to get her rain boots. What will Mary do next? Mary puts her feet _____(on, in) her boots. Mary suddenly remembers to get her umbrella. Mary runs outside. Mary opens her umbrella and puts it _____(on, over) her head. As Mary opens her umbrella she sees the sun peeking _____(in, through) the clouds and is suddenly very excited it stopped raining.
